

b. Agreement

The predicate adjective agrees with the word with which it goes in gender and number, but it does not usually agree in definiteness (e.g. טוב איש - "the man is good").

c. State

The predicate adjective is always in the absolute state (e.g. טובה היא האישה - "the woman is good").

C. Substantive Adjective

1. Definition of the Substantive Adjective

The substantive adjective is the adjective used like a noun (e.g. טוב - "the good one" or "the good thing").

2. State of the Substantive Adjective

The substantive adjective may be either in the absolute or construct state (e.g. טוב - "the good one" or טוב הבית "the good one of the house").
