

The Scripture is a big book and it is all God's Word, that God has particular teaching for various situations that the Word of God is composited of various it's truth is wide and diverse that it has been that we should understand it as the whole of and for those who are to be leaders in the work of Christ, for those who are to accomplish what He desires and to accomplish, it is vital that they have not merely one or two truths they get, pointed as that is, but that they are ever growing and ever advancing in the knowledge of the truth, while not forsaking any of the truth already known, but going further in their understanding, and becoming better and better-Christians fitted to be interpreters of the Word of God.

A little shortly after I graduated from college, ~~eh~~ when I was planning to go to Princeton Seminary, talking to a young man in college who told me that I shouldn't go there, he said that he had secured catalogs from several seminaries and he said the catalog of Princeton Seminary, as you read it, you read this "Here's the truth; come and get it." We've got it; you come; we'll give it to you." He said, "That's the attitude, everything is ~~twisted~~ crystallized, everything is cut and dried, 'You come and take it, and we'll give it to you.' Why," he said, "Union Seminary in New York, and some others, as you read their catalogs, you found that we were going forward, in a great venture to learn the truth, and moving forward, and learning what the thing is ~~that~~ we should know now, forsaking the ~~thing~~ old, abandoned things that are through for us." Well you see how ~~we've been~~ ^{he was} going from one extreme to ~~another~~ the other extreme, and he was a graduate of the Bible School of Los Angeles, a man who when graduated there was just ready to go out and preach the Gospel anywhere he had opportunity; he was marvelously used in the salvation of souls; very fruitful.
