

sometimes ~~they~~^I look backward to the we had at Westminster, and sometimes you feel just a little a bit, "well, there are great advantages in that."

Now let me show you what the great advantage~~xxx~~ is. Up at Westminster here was the propaganda. Here were these great scholars, Dr. Machen, Mr. , and I was one of them. Dr. Wilson was gone ~~now~~ at that time, great scholars; they were the greatest authorities on the faith in the world. ~~They~~ There is nobody like them, ^{these 8 men} Now you take what they say; that gives you the last look. You want to know what the Scriptures say; see what these men teach. I know one student said to me. He said, "I hardly knew that men prayed in public ~~until~~ until I listened to Dr. Machen to see what words He used so that I could be sure that I would use the right words and not the wrong words."

Well, it sounds that created a spirit of loyalty ~~unity~~; and let us like they had up there.

This was the reformed faith and these were the great leaders, and ~~they~~ those fellows would give anything to stand behind these men right straight down the line. Well, that is a mistake that is not hard to create in any institution if you deliberately set about to do it. The deliberately tried to take the office apart and I said a thousand times in the eleven years

And suppose I do what's right and you follow me. I may be gone sometime, and if you get the habit of following behind, you may pick the ~~man~~ wrong man to follow in my place. Don't follow a man; follow ~~God~~ the Lord. Well, it doesn't create the same loyalty. And so you don't get quite the same unified attitude of the student body. Naturally when you all think you're in the greatest
