

I've mentioned how Carl McIntire was pastor in Ventnor for 3 years I believe and then was called to Collingswood and was pastor of that large church. A church the members had build within the previous--I don't know how many years, but all the people had contributed a substantial amount to the church were then members of the church. It was not build while he was there. It was built I'mnot sure when Dr. Laird was there or a little before. At least most if not all of the money was given to built it by people who were there then, and they called Dr. McIntire as pastor. Immeidiately he was very busy as pastor of that large church. I think he'd been there about a year when Dr. Buchannan, pastor of the Broadway Presbyterian church had died, and not only that but several members, the pastor of a big church in ~~XXXX~~ Cincinnati, and a big church in Glendale and other places who had accepted Dr. Machen's invitation to be members of the IBPFPM he was forming, they saw the pressure coming against it and many people urged them n t to become mixed in that and they resigned. Quite a bunch of them resigned.

Then Dr. McIntire was told that the Board ~~had~~^{elected} him to fill the vacancy caused by Buchannan's death. After he was in it he felt a little bit as if that had not been quite straightforward, when all these resigned that he hadn't heard about to be told he was elected to fill the vacancy by Buchannan's death. Of course it sounded like a particularly good invitation "to take the place of" the pastor of the Broadway Presbyterian church who had died, but he was entirely for the cause of standing against modernism and desirous of sending sound Christian missionaries to the foreign field and was glad to participate in the IBPFPM. Then when the General ~~Assembly~~ Assembly passed its Mandate that everyone must support
