

It did not affect them as much then as it did 10 yrs. later when that group had complete control, but an awful lot more than it had the first 3 or 4 years.

At Faith within the limitations of not having access to more money, or the ability to bring in people from outside, within those limitations I think the Lord enabled us to do a really wonderful task all the time we were there. But then when the pressures came we saw it was going to be impossible after this year. We had to see the testimony we tried to build either disappear or step out and start a new one.
