

far as I could s-e. However, the man was a bit irritated. He said, "Why," he said, "I have already He ~~sixtimes~~ said, "You should have come before this." He said, "I have already given ~~you~~ your name to the police."

I should have mentioned above that the cook at the American Schools spoke German well, and all of us conversed with him in German. though he was an Arab. But he did not know any English. The next day I think Dr. albright was away, and a group of us was there in the school when a policeman, carrying a big rifle, came to the door. He The orders that had been given before I went to the health office ;had resulted in his being ordered to find me and bring~~me~~ me in. He demanded that I go with him. I tried to tell him that I had already been there the day before and that was taken care of. However, he had his orders to take me, and that was that. He spoke Arabic, and I spoke jEnglish, and I did not speak ~~Arabic~~ Arabic well enough to converse with him really. So I said to Uaepler, "What shall we do?" and Baepler said, "let's get the cook." He's ~~an Arab~~ an Arab who speaks German. So we went and told the cook what the problem was and he came out to tell the policeman that I had already been ~~there~~ there. The ~~Arab~~ policeman and he began arguing, and it was quite evident that the policeman had his orders and he must execute them. He felt he must execute them/, and must escort me to the authorities. Then the cook turned to me and explained in German and I answered him in German and when the policeman heard us talking that way he immediately changed completely. He said, "Oh, can you talk German?" He said, "I was brought up in the German orphanage"and ~~we~~ as soon as he knew I could talk German we explained the whole thing together and ~~it~~ everything was ovrked out nicely, and he was very pleasant and nothing more was said about taking me in.

We would made various trips to different places, and we had classes with Dr. albright, sometimes he would assign us subjects to investigate in the library, such as I had to give a report on a section on Palesine in a certain section of very early history on which there was a little material in various books, but extremely little. I gathered it together from these various books and gave the paper
