~~The~~ Then later I received a notice of the date of the meeting and I saw that prices and cost of rooms at the ~~Quax~~ O'Hare Regency were extremely high. They invited people to The invitationsaid that I don't remember whether I wrote a letter saying that I would like to go, but did not feel I could pay the cost of the trip and the hotel there or not. AT any rate I did receive a letter, which I believe Dr. Boice was responsible for, saying that the council would pay my way. T heir preiv previous letter had asked whether a person might give preference as to a ~~xxx~~ roommate, and I had given no preference, and the letter that I -ot said, "Your roommate is," and gave the name of a man I had never heard of. Since he was someone who the council believed was a real believer in inerrancy I did not see any reason why it should make any particular difference who it was. He was LUtheran from California, and he spent most of his time at the meeting talking with other Lutherans. ~~The~~ The attempt was made to bring in people from all sorts of ~~groups~~, groups, provided they belived in inerrancy, and they were anxious to get interest on the part of the Lutherans. The As far as I know no LUtherans actually took any part ~~xxx~~ except the members of the Missouri synod, but there have been a number of them then and at various times since who have been acitvely involved in the work of the council. I usually went to bed early and this man usually went to bed late. I usually got up while he was still sleeping, and we hardly saw each other, but I wrote him a letter after I got home, to which I received a very nice answer. I was glad to have made his acquaintance. become acquainted with him.

Dr. Murray went to the meeting. I believe he was the only member of our board who did, but several members of the faculty went, some of them sent by the seminary and some sent by special funds raised for the purpose. Those who went included Dr. Vannoy, Mr. Dunzweiler. It is my ~~impr~~ <sup>may</sup> impression there were others, but I/~~might~~ be mistaken. I know these three werethere.

At the hotel desk there was a statement that a certain ;amount would be paid by the council toward my room, and amount with covered the ~~x~~ three nights I was there, at half the cost of the double room, and also a certain amount for meals. ~~Th~~
