

in saying a few words on the subject. The original papers were sent to all participants in the conference ahead of time. These meetings were held, two at a time, and everyone was invited to state their preference for each of the five or so hours at which these meetings were held, among the two that would be held then. They would be given tickets for particular meetings. They would try to follow their preferences but could not promise it, depending on how many asked for each one. I remember particularly one at which Dr. Gerstung spoke. I have no recollection at the moment of what he said but I remember his manner which was very, very comative and as if he were engaging in a big debate. It seemed to me a very effective manner of speaking. After that, I don't know whether it was something he aid, more likely something said in one of the discussions, that led me to make a couple of remarks that I thought were rather important. After the meeting Sam Moore spoke to me and expressed agreement with what I had said. He is the owner of the Nelson publishing company. Previously a man representing that company, a Mr. Hiam, had come here to ask Dr. Cohen and me to take part in the preparation of their new King James Bible. Dr. Cohen dealt with Revealtion. I dealt with Isaiah. It was supposed to be simply a ~~XXXX~~ revision of the King James. I was very well ~~my~~ impressed with Mr. Hiam and had talked with him several times on the phone. When I spoke with Mr. Moore I said, ~~how~~ "How is Frank Hiam?" He said, "/Oh, he's all right." in a tone that seemed to imply complete lack of interest. Some time after that I received a letter from sent to those who were ~~XXXX~~ concerned with the preparation of their new edition of the Bible in wich it said, " As you doubtless know, Frank Hiam is no longer in charge of this project." I sent a copy of our Christmas letter to fFrank Hiam addressed to Nelson Company the next Christmas but do not know whether it reached him or because I have never heard anything about him since. Mr. Moore was very friendly at that time. Three or four years later, after the meeting introducing the new Bible, their New King James Version, that was held in Phila~~d~~elphia, I wrote him a letter making suggestions about a couple of things in connecton with the arrangmeents for the meeting, but have had no answer from him.
