

had an overwhelming condemning answer to Ketcham. Kethham, after we started Faith, Ketcham said to someone, "I wonder how soon McIntire's going to start attacking MacRae." Well, I never made any attack on him. I could see nothing to be gained by it, and while he has attacked me to some extent through the years it has been comparatively little, and I have never really answered.

When he would refer to me in the ~~Reason~~ Beacon, except when, during-- was it our second or third year, the American Council was formed ~~XXXX~~ (1941) ~~fifth~~ fifth and I remember then, as he had the article telling about the founding of it and ~~the~~ all the ~~XXXXXXXXXX~~ prominent people who were connected with it, he mentioned my name and said that I was president of Faith Seminary, but that is one of the few times he ever referred to me that way. However, ~~he had made the motion~~, being anxious to ~~hold me there~~ keep me there, he had made the motion that I should be given the title of president of the faculty or president of the seminary. Actually the two terms were identical in those days. When Merril Macpherson asked in the board meeting, when the motion was made, he said, "Which is it?" but he got ~~no~~ no answer really. The ~~thing~~ ^{motion} was passed. However, he objected to having, for instance, stationery, with my name on it as president, or anything like that, and Armes suggested that I be given some stationery that would say "Office of the President," and so I used stationery that said, "Office of the President" for a number of years. [even up until Oct. '83] After ~~some~~ ^{some} years, when Presley Edwards was on the board ~~Presley~~ felt that I should be a member of the ~~XXXXX~~ Executive Committee, and I mentioned it to Dr. Laird and to Roland Armes and both of them expressed to me that they thought that would be a good idea, but when Carl said in (nc?) a the meeting that this would be a bad idea both of them spoke against it, saying that the Executive Committee never met without having me with them and so. ~~but~~ However, Presley had enough with him on the board that he probably would have gotten it through. When McIntire saw that was likely he declared he would not be a member of a one-man institution, and if I was were to be made a member of the Executive Committee of the board he would no longer be president of the board. He said, "I will ~~not~~ remain as a member but I will not be president," but
