

4 — Higher Criticism of the Pentateuch

4) The law of offerings
5) The consecration of Aaron
6) Sin in the priesthood
F. Laws for holiness of people and priests	40-41
G. The journey of the Israelites	41-42
H. Moses' farewell address: Deuteronomy	42-43
III. Authorship of the Pentateuch	44-65
A. Parts which claim to be Mosaic	44-46
B. Old Testament references to Moses	46
C. New Testament references to Moses	46-56
D. The Traditional Jewish/Christian views	56-65
IV. The Higher Criticism of the Pentateuch	31-78
A. Early doubts of Mosaic authorship	17-19
B. Early Documentary Theory:	32-47
1) Astruc
2) Eichorn
a. divine names
b. continuous narrative
c. parallel passages, style
C. From Eichorn to Graff	48-80
1) Fragmentary Hypothesis: Ilgen
2) Documentary Hypothesis: DeWette
3) Supplement Hypothesis: Ewald
4) Modified Doc. Hypothesis: Hupfeld
5) Rise of Developmental Hypothesis:
Graf-Wellhausen Hypothesis
6) The unity of the theory
7) The Appropriateness of Sections
V. Examination of the Arguments for Partition	81-123
A. The argument from divine names	82-100
1) The priority of this criterion
2) Graf-Wellhausen breaks up criterion
3) Criterion confined to Genesis
4) Inconsistent use of criteria
5) Divine names inconsistency and conflicts

65-133
65-65
65-65

↓ New
wa

95-133

134-

135

