

Old Testament Prophetic Books

Feb. - May 1954 (Spring Semester)

- 1 Conditional prediction
- 3 British Israelism
- 4 Jer 25:15
- 5 'all' does not mean everyone without exception
Jer 31:33 difference between dispensation of law and of grace
- 6 The New Covenant
- 7 Difference between New Covenant and Old Covenant
Whole nation will be saved instead of electing just a few Whole nation will be saved in the millennial age
- 8 Amil interp of the New Covenant Can't fit the church age
Two errors to avoid
Everything wonderful that's predicted is a picture of church age
Everything wonderful predicted is about the millennium
- 9 God gives pictures of both the millennium and of the church age in the OT
- 10 Any presuppositions are wrong
- 11 We must take the inductive approach
Just because everything fits into a beautiful system does not prove that the system is true
Anything built on inference may prove to be false
- 12 Half of Daniel is about Maccabees and half about Antichrist Jer 33:18 Which of two suggested interpretations is correct?
- 14 No one knows the exact way it will be fulfilled--whether the sacrifices will be literal or not Dislike of the term 'spiritualizing' which is to twist meaning
- 15 Difference between spiritualizing and taking a thing figuratively
Use of figurative language in the Bible
- 16 Rebukes are left for Israel and blessings taken for the church
Writer who said nothing in Revelation is to be taken literally
- 17 Micah Isaiah mentions Uzziah, Micah doesn't
- 18 Purpose of Micah's book i.e. rebuke mingled with encouragement for the godly
- 20 Micah 1/1 to 2:11 is rebuke
2:14 Moresheth Play on words One who seizes your property
- 21 Micah 3 is all rebuke
Micah chs. 4-5 are blessing
- 22 Micah 6:1-5 is rebuke
- 23 How many sections are there in Micah's prophecy?
- 24 Most Bible Dictionaries say it is divided into 3 sections
- 25 First section 1/1-2:11
- 27 Comparisons and similes
- 28 Interpretation of Micah 2:11-13
- 32 Commentaries interpretation of Mi. 2/11-13
- 34 Micah 2:12 'all' = the remnant of Israel.