

- 35 Those who were returnees from exile were from both Northern and Southern tribes. Cf Asher
- 38 Micah 2:12-13 Primarily refers to return from exile→ secondarily to being a picture of the gospel
- 39 Compass and Carlson's book on Micah
- 41 Micah 3:1 (good points on those who talk 'peace')
- 42 Micah 3:8-11 The minister and his salary
- 43 Suffering not necessarily a sign of wickedness on part of sufferer
Mic 3:12 Unconditional prediction Postponed, not removed
- 44 Difference between a comparison and a figure of speech ('as')
- 47 'Jerusalem shall become as heaps' is a comparison(an exact situation)
not a simile
- 48 What is a word? (good illustrations)
- 49 Illustrations of changed meaning of words in German and English
- 50 The word 'hill' in Hebrew and in English
- 52 Use of Young's Concordance
- 53 Isa 10:32 examined closely
- 54 'Hill' > 'mountain'
- 55 Literally fulfilled by the Babylonian conquest
Transition to blessing
- 56 Not trying to learn everything about fut. prophecy here but learn proper method in Bible study.
- 57 How is the mountain of the Lord's house to rise? Physically?
or Figuratively? Mic.4:1
- 59 Mic.4:2
- 60 Mic.4:3
- 61 The beginning of absolute pacifism
Switzerland's military preparedness ensures its peace
- 62 Mic 4:3 Three possible interpretations
- 63 Mic 4:4 freedom from external danger
Amillennial interpretation by E. Kretschman, Missouri Lutheran
- 65 Pusey's comments on this passage--is all fulfilled in the character of the gospel.
- 69 Repetition between Is 2 and Mic.4
- 72 Mic 4:5 Difference between a perfect and an imperfect
Frequentive use of the imperfect
'I go fishing'-- habitual work or occupation
- 74 All the people do walk in the name of his god. Determination