

It is one of the great secrets of life, to realize the presence of God, and His constant interest. A child of God need never feel alone, or far from sympathy and help. Tell the Lord all your need. He will understand. Talk over with Him all your difficulties, all your desires, all your doubts. Look to Him for final solution of all your problems.

“He knows, He loves, He cares,
 Nothing this truth can dim.
 He does the very best for those,
 Who leave the choice with Him.”

The Transfiguration shows God's interest in the world. It shows that the heavenly is interested in the earthly. This is a subject of great moment to us. God's interest in our lives is a blessing to be constantly realized. But we would know beyond that. What is God most interested in? In whom is He most interested? Let us discover that, if we can, that we may turn our interest in the direction of God's.

God is primarily interested in His son Jesus Christ. <sup>John 3:16</sup> For Him did the transfiguration occur. Such a great manifestation was never given any other man. This occurred just after the disciples had confessed their faith in Jesus' deity and Messiahship at Caesarea Philippi, as if to put the stamp of God's approval on that confession. In the midst of the transfiguration a cloud overshadowed them, and the voice of God declared from the cloud, “This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased; hear ye him.” On two other occasions a voice from the clouds placed a similar recognition on Jesus Christ. God has shown that
