

in His death, as the fulfillment of the purpose for which He was made incarnate.

My friends, do we realize the interest of God in the world, revealed in this transfiguration scene? Do we have in our lives that peace and joy that comes from knowing He is interested in all we do?

As we look at life, are we primarily interested in that which most interests our heavenly Father. His greatest interest is in Jesus Christ. Is ours? Let us make our lives Christo-centric. Let us make His life our great example, and His teachings our great guide.

As we look at Christ, do we feel most interest in that aspect of Christ which was of greatest importance to God? Is His death for our sins, and His resurrection, the pivot of our lives? The apostle Paul said, "I am crucified with Christ, nevertheless I live, yet not I, but Christ liveth in me". Is the death of Christ on our behalf so real to us that we can personally echo these words of Paul?

Let us realize the interest of God in us. Let us direct our interest primarily to that which most interests Him, to His Son Jesus Christ. Let us center our relation to Christ around that which was the object of His coming. Let us ever meditate upon and glory in, His offering of Himself for us.
