

him into our hearts. We have the chance right now to receive him as king of our lives, and then we have peace with God through what he did on Calvary's cross, and we have the peace of God reigning in our hearts, and ^{AN} no matter what happens in this wicked world, if our Lord tarries, we can have the Prince of Peace in our hearts right now. / Thank God this whole world will have him reigning in peace and justice in those last days which Micah ^{here} describes here.

Oh I like to think of the details of the prophetic pictures that God has given us. I like to think of the wonderful things he's going to bring to pass in this world. I like to think of the way that he's going to raise us up to be with Christ and to be free from all the miseries of this life when we're caught up with him in the air and we'll be forever with the Lord. But oh, you know, I think best of all is to think of what he is going to establish when he comes back to this earth, that wonderful time, that millennial kingdom, when he will reign in righteousness and He will be the King!
