

or our trust in any man. He wants us to put it in Christ along. Because every man may become carnal for a time. Any man may become carnal for a time. A man after a long life of usefulness may fall into sin. A man may have a great time of service for the Lord, and then fall into confusion and misunderstanding, and then come back. You can't understand this9½.... humanity, and God doesn't expect us to. But He expects us to fix our eyes on the Lord Jesus Christ, and on Him alone, and9½.... I am of Paul, or I am of Apollos, but to truly be of Christ, and of him alone. "Who then is Paul, and who is Apollos...and every man shall receive his own reward according to his own labour." Let's get down to v.16.

"Know ye not that ye are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwalleth in you? If any man defile the temple of God, him shall God destroy." A wonderful verse against the sins of the flesh. But there is no mention of the sins of the flesh in this chapter. It is absolutely true of the sins of the flesh, but it is equally true of the sin of the spirit. The man who ~~he~~ who lets envying and strife and division enter into his life, the man who says I am of Paul, or I am of Apollos, that man is defiling the temple of God. He is becoming carnal.

"Let no man dedeive himself. If any man among you seemeth to be wise in this world, let him become a fool, that he may be wise. For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God...Therefore let no man glory in men. For all things are your's." And ~~some~~ some people said, Oh, that fellow Paul, that fellow, he was our spiritual father. He came here, yes, but Apollos has a ~~much~~ much nicer attitude than Paul. Paul is a hard fellow to get along with. He is a miserable chap. He's always wanting his own way on things. Look at the way ~~xxxxxxx~~ he split with Barnabus back there. And just because Paul had a mean attitude toward John Mark and wouldn't take him, and Paul was wrong. Later on he says, Send John Mark to me, for he is12..... Barnabus had a heart of love. Barnabus saw that young Mark made a mistake, but wasn't going to hold it against him forever. He said, Mark come with me, and I will help you. You are sorry for your mistake. I am ready to forgive
