

souls into His kingdom. May He help us to show others how to grow in grace, and to lead them and to help them, and to teach them His Holy Word. But Oh may He help us to avoid this attitude of carnality which is so prominent among his people, an attitude which isnatural, is human, but it is a result of the ~~we~~ sowing of Satan, and it is something which we must13..... if we are to be blessed of the Lord. May He enable us to show forth the person of Christ, as wheat among the tares, that others may be attracted by the perfume of our lives, rather than simply repelled by the criticisms which we make, but attracted by our clear thinking, by our understanding of these principles, and by the fact that we are doing the task he wants us to do, of bringing our lives into conformity with His will, and giving forth His truth, and His teaching that the ~~mirac~~ ^{Spiky} Spirit of God may use us to lead other souls to life in Him. Let us pray.....
