

to Him for salvation. But oh our God, if there be one here that hasn't, lead that one to see Jesus dying on the Cross for their sake and to be born again

(13.) And oh our God, we pray that those gathered here may be used of Christ to lead souls to him and

And, oh our God, we thank you for the precious Word. We thank thee that it's true from cover to cover. Help us to study it, to understand it and know what it means, to apply its teaching to our hearts and lives and to make them known to a world that needs them so. Oh our God, may we never weaken from our stand for the whole Word of God. And our God, we thank you that we are not ignorant of Satan's wiles. We have seen them, we have experienced them, we know how he attacks with vicious methods those that stand for God
