three-fourths of some of the ailments we suffer are ~~psychosomatic~~ psychosomatic. And if you just have confidence in someone why it can heal you. There are all kinds of healing but quite a few of Jesus' healings were healings that could not be done by mental Yes, he made the blind to see, raised the dead, there were several of them that could not . . . would not . . . but I don't think he's going into this specific fact, like that to John. He's just giving a general statement. You come and inquire. Well now if I say it's just my word. I want you to look about me and see the evidence.

Question: Answer: Yes that's definitely foretold in Deuteronomy. It says if you have a ~~prophet~~ prophet . . . whether God's in this prophet and he says something and it comes to pass the way he predicted do not follow that prophet, do not let miracles mislead you, he warns you. I doubt whether it's at all explicit here. Perhaps we will say that there are various ways he could die that wouldn't come out. But I don't think it's specific, ~~perhaps~~ ~~we can say that there are various~~

Well "he was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities, the chastisement of our peace, " the chastisement that would result in our ^{was} peace, the chastisement of our peace upon him and with his stripes, we are healed." Then the expression of the atonement in the "we" now for those who have accepted.

Question: What does it mean we are healed by his stripes? Answer: I think it is a rather general expression, the suffering he had. I think it includes all but the figure is taken from that part. Yes, yes. We are healed through what he suffered. Not just through the fact that he ~~suffered~~ ^{stopped to breathe.} But through
