

SEMINAR # 1

Bible that this section of Isaiah is a marvellous section in which Isaiah predicts Christ, and tells wonderful things about Him. Well, that is true. I hope we will increase our knowledge on that statement as we...

Our primary purpose is not to present and stress that phase of the truth, but it is to treat teachings about Christ in the general background of the section as a whole. While Isaiah ~~talked to give~~ us the marvellous ~~things~~ teachings about Christ, Isaiah simply ~~went off and~~ was hiding somewhere, and then God gave him the message of ... nothing until ~~the~~ 700 years later when he saw it fulfilled, or whether Isaiah was directly speaking to the people of his own day. Here is the message of great importance for their own day, but the messages of ~~of~~ course later tremendous messages for all people of all ages as well. I think the latter is the case. A prophet rarely gives something that would mean nothing until ~~a~~ <sup>Almost</sup> centuries later... / ~~All~~ prophets ~~of~~ speak to the people of their days, and ~~they~~ they look beyond on distant future and describes the future and have great meanings for the people of ~~his~~ their days, but there are ~~far~~ greater meanings for later on. When we can understand these things better / than we could at later times. I want to bring to you during these four hours something of a development of different sections of Isaiah to show you how he starts with ~~the~~ the immediate needs of the people of his own days and he goes on by a logical ~~by~~ connected process to give that which is far more important to the people of his own day than what he was immediately getting, that which is ~~is~~ of supreme importance to us. Probably higher critics ~~will~~ may say that the book of Isaiah is divided into two
