

contradicts any such idea, and the outstanding one of those, of course, is the creation of man, because there that is according to _____ (2.75) is one of the very specific instances of Divine intervention. Verse twenty-six, ^{And} God said, Let us make man in our image, after our likeness (~~and~~ let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowls of the air,).... So, God ~~made~~ created man in his own image ~~after~~ ^{in the image of God} created created he him; male and female created h them. " When you read that, you might think at the outset Adam and Eve standing. You ~~read~~ in chapter two, it is clear that that isn't what's said, because it is clear that ~~at first~~ Adam was created first, ~~and~~ then Eve, but this is given as ^a ~~the distinction of the events~~ as definitely Divine intervention. That's very important. And then this ~~is~~ ^{of course,} is very plain, ~~because~~ ^{that} in chapter two / Adam and Eve were not created with the beasts, but the creation of the beasts came after the creation of Adam, and was a distinct Divine act, not an act of simply saying words _____ (2.00) that it was done, but there, we don't know exactly how God did. We can't fully understand what it means, but we know that there are some very remarkable Divine ~~intervention~~ ^{noticed} in connection with the creation of Eve. And then there is a point there I ~~know~~ that when I began ~~to~~ studying this passage, ^{the way} in the Hebrew, where I think that it's unfortunate ~~that~~ King James Version translated the ~~first~~ ^{verse} seven of chapter two. It ~~says that~~ says that He "breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and man became a living soul." And this word "living soul" which is translated that way here sounds as if God gave man spiritual life, which, of course, he did, but I don't ~~think~~ ^{him} think that's what the particular passage says. - He gave / spiritual life, because you read on about the flood, and over later, it says, Noah ~~entered and~~ ^{into the ark} took every animal ¹ into ~~the ark~~
