

she took it out and looked at it. She said, you are perfectly normal. You have no fever at all. You know. I picked up my suitcase... she said, you may go to bed if you want to, but you don't have any fever. You know, there is nothing wrong with you. You know, I picked up my suitcase, and I walked all the distance back without a stop. I did not feel the least bit /tired. It shows the effect of an idea on the mind. You can imagine something, and they call that faith, and- but it does not last very long that way. That which is lasting must be faith, not simply an idea whether true or not, but must be related to what is true. Here is a boy in the second floor of a burning building. And it is all dark underneath. And the boy says, Oh, I will burn up if I stay here. I've got to get out. He says, I am going to ~~li~~ believe that my father is down there and-- in the darkness and you-eat-me-- catch me. ~~And-the-boy-said;-Oh;-I--will-burn-up--if-I-stay-here;;~~. And he jumps from the window. And if his father is not there, this ~~mal-~~ man lands on the rock and perhaps killed. That is not faith. That is That is credulity. That is presumption. Here is another boy. He is there in the ^{burning} second floor of this/building. And he hears his father's-~~bei~~ voice underneath. The father says, .. he cannot see you. It is dark, and down under there he cannot see you. But here is the voice and the father can see him in the lights from the fire and the father says, Jump, I can catch you right here. The boy says, I do not see him. I do not think he is there. I am afraid to/~~##~~/ jump. I am afraid I am going to get hurt. I am afraid of getting hurt. That is lack of faith. But ~~h~~ the boy that says, Yes, I heard my father's voice and I know he is there. I will jump without fear, because he says he will catch me and I can trust him to do it. That is faith. ~~Faith-~~ Faith is belief founded on evidence. And Christian faith is founded on the statements of the Bible. This is our fathers' book. This is our fathers' tea^u ^c Hing as to what we should do and how we can find deliverance from the terrible situation in which we are in the world on account of sin, and this book says in it, it says, it says to us what to do. Believe ~~on~~ the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved. And the man without faith says,
