

guide by dreams. I have known people who have thought they should watch their feelings closely. That is the way that ~~they~~ they thought that the Lord was leading them, through their feelings. One man that I knew of who was a student in a Bible school. He had liberty, he said to build a very lovely . . . which had a little section which would come out and he could make a writing table out of , and a little section for all the things ~~at~~ that a person wanted who travelled a great deal~~x~~. He spent hours and hours making that ~~trunk~~, then he didn't have any liberty to keep ~~it~~ so he sold it for practically nothing to somebody else, and then he had liberty ~~at~~ again to make another one. Well, I don't feel that the Lord guides us ~~by~~ ordinarily by our feelings. There again, what we ~~are~~ ate yesterday is more ~~about~~ to determine how ~~we~~ we feel than what the Lord's will is for us. How many people think that the circumstances are what guide, and certainly God uses circumstances. But how can you be sure that God is leading you through the ~~circumstances~~-- circumstances, we had a fellow ~~once~~ who was coming to Faith Seminary, and all set to come, and he wrote us a letter, and he says God is ~~leading~~ guiding me to such a place, and he named a place where the ~~the~~ Word of God is torn ~~to~~ pieces, where unbelief is subtly ~~inculcated~~ inculcated into people's minds. The Lord never lead him to go there, ~~he got a~~ What ~~happened~~, he got a letter from somebody, giving him a gift of money to help him to go to such and such a place to ~~study~~, ~~He came~~--He said it came unsolicited, the Lord is leading me to go there. Well, it was the devil, not the ~~Lord~~, ~~in~~ Lord, in that case. I knew that, and I knew in his future life, a man who could have been used of God for he had real talent, was used to ~~tear~~ tear down faith instead of build it up because he went where his faith was torn down, and he was filled with doubts of the Word of God, instead of being strengthened in his ideas and understanding. The ~~Lord~~ Lord does lead by circumstances, in some cases, but we have ~~to~~ to be very careful how we follow. Jonah ~~want~~ went down to Joppa, and we read that he found a convenient ship going to Tarsus, God ~~has~~ said, Jonah, you go to Ninevah, ~~and~~ but ~~when~~ when Jonah got to Tarsus, . . . it was going to ~~Tarsus~~ Tarsus, and Jonah ~~got~~ got the ship. Jonah knew that he was ~~fleeing~~ fleeing from the presence of the Lord. He was not doing the Lord's will. On the other hand, we read in the New Testament, that the disciples got into a ship and crossed the sea of Galilee and they found that the winds were contrary. Well, were they out of the ~~Lord~~ Lord's will. If they were in the Lord's will, ~~were~~ were the ~~wind~~ winds have ~~been~~.
