

(025) is very important about God's will is, Is God/ wanted tomorrow?/ to convert everybody in the world God could do it, just like that... Well, that is not God's will. We do not understand the inscrutable will of God. But we know this that it is God's will that everyone of us be His / instrument in reaching people for Him, / but that He is / even more interested in reaching people for Him in the ... people making them not merely carnal Christians but spiritual Christians, making them men whose lives are devoted to th- Him, men who are fully devoted so that they will accomplish whatever He has in mind for them that they will grow in the image of the Lord, and God may have certain experiences He wants to have come into your life, because of certain effects they can have upon you, and then before He leads you into a certain direction, not too much because of what you are going to accomplish there, but because of the way the people have certain effects upon you in moulding into the sort of person that it is de- His / desire that-He should live with Him to all concerned. Only we know this. It is not God's will for anyone of us to be content with accomplishing less for Him than we can. We know that. Some men accomplish- have abilities to accomplish tremendously, do little. but and ~~some have little abilities to accomplish-~~ Some men have little abilities / accomplish in comparison yet-- a great deal/ compared with his-ab-- their abilities. God is interested in whether we do the very best we can with what have more than in how much the actual result is-- there is- is that is accomplish. So, I would say that the
