

definitely say that it was so.
the Bible does not ~~say it~~ / ~~A~~ I do not see any reason why it was not.
I should not press it. It is just my opinion. But at any rate, there is every reason to think that Adam and Eve may well have been saved. But certainly from this time on there ~~he~~ was the knowledge of the fact that God was going to send His only begotten Son that whosoever believeth on Him ~~should~~ ^{might} not perish but have eternal life. There is the first great missionary work and the great ^{example} sample of what missionary work today should be. Let us pray.

Oh, God our Father we thank you for the Scripture, our Source and our Guide book ~~on~~ our Handbook and our Manual. We praise you for it. And Oh, our God, help us see clearly where we are, / to realize that even after we are saved and ~~praised~~ - freed from the guilt of sin, we are always so easy to hide behind trees and it is so easy for us to seek and go on in our own way and to ignore God. Help us our Father to come into your presence to face the ~~if~~ question, to realize that the power of ~~Satan~~ - sin is upon us still, to ~~not~~ realize that we can't look down from the lofty pedestal the wonderful people who know everything and tell others how they should live, ^{that} but we are sinners saved by grace. And we must go on to and grow in grace and knowledge of the Lord and we can show others how ^{also} often ~~often~~ to come to the Lord Jesus Christ and grow in the knowledge of His grace. In our Saviour's name. Amen.
