

happening and solves any real grievances or perhaps gets rid of somebody who is a troublemaker, ordinarily it doesn't procede further. But in this case it did procede further. But we'll have to leave that until our next meeting.

Let us pray: Our Father we pray that you will help us not to be centers of disaffection in the outskirts of any camp. Help us to train for the leadership which you desire everyone here to have sometime in some segment of your work.

Help us while we are in a position of following, in a position of helping another to be a faithful helper a faithful follower, but help us to watching and thinking how we can lead when our turn comes if that's in your will. But O our God help us in all that we do to keep keep our eye on the Saviour and to put Him first in every-thing. We ask in Jesus Name. Amen.

...we have tremendous confidence in our churches. The military services value highly their association with religious groups in the United States. We rely upon them for the maintenance and development of our chaplaincy, which provides a major support to morale in the spiritual needs of our personnel. We are confident that this relationship will continue to grow and expand in the future.
