

Of the 10 horns and of the other which came up . . . whose look was more stout than his fellows. I beheld that the same horn made war against the saints." Here ever in the interpretation we have were told about what happened than before. "And prevailed against them until the Ancient of Days came." Certainly you can't say Antiochus Epiphanes prevailed until the Ancient of Days came. This is no reference to Antiochus Epiphanes. This does not come out of the 3rd beast; it comes out of the 4th. It certainly must be a picture of Antichrist but we are not told much about it. So Antichrist comes in at this point. "And the same horn made war against the saints and prevailed against them until the Ancient of Days came."

But then there is a further description of it a little further on. Then he says the fourth beast shall be the fourth kingdom and so on and vs. 24 - "The ten horns out of this kingdom are the ten kings that shall arise and another shall arise after them and he shall be diverse from the first and he shall . . . wear out the saints of the Most High and think to change times and laws." When Roosevelt changed the date of Thanksgiving some people said that was the case of

But I don't think they could keep it very long

There has been much more change recently than Roosevelt ever thought ^{brought} of ^{making in} 1 time's ^{dates.}

"And they shall be given unto his hands until the times and times and dividing of times but the judgment shall sit and they shall take away his ~~king~~ dominion . . . and the kingdom and the dominion and the greatness of the kingdom ~~of~~ under the whole heaven shall be given to the people of the saints of the Most High whose kingdom is an everlasting kingdom and all dominions shall serve him and obey him." So we have now the Antichrist three times mentioned in ch. 7 but not much told about him. Then we have after that this ~~one~~ without hands -- it is represented in a very different way in ch. 7. Ch. 7 says in vs. 22: "Until the Ancient of Days came and judgment was given to the saints of the Most High." Oh yes it's back in vs. 9 that it tells that in more detail. He says: I beheld till the thrones were cast down and the Ancient of Days did sit whose garment was white as snow . . . I beheld even till the beast was slain and his body destroyed and given to the burning flame." Then vs. 12 And as
