

and they continued until they were taken over eventually by the ~~Roman~~ Romans, and then so here we have places in this verse ~~pictured~~- picturing the four wings, and the four heads, Alexander's kingdom dividing into the four parts that we know, and in later chapters we are told more about Alexander's kingdom but ~~th~~ here we are told this about it, and then we are told that there is to be another beast, "After this I saw in the night visions, and behold a fourth beast, dreadful and terrible, and ~~st~~ strong exceedingly; and it had great iron teeth: it devoured and brake in pieces, and stamped the residue with the feet of it: and it was diverse from all the beasts that were before it; and it had ten horns. I considered the horns, and behold, there came up among them another little horn, before whom there were three of the first horns plucked up by the roots; and, behold, in the horn were eyes like the eyes of man, and a mouth speaking ~~a~~ great things." Well, this is doubtless looking on to what was the ten toes in the image, and ~~prob~~ably looking to something that is ~~st~~ still future, that may not even come until after the rapture, but looking to the revelation of the anti-Christ, a figure like Napoleon or Hitler, a figure that is ~~is~~ going to try to take over possession of the world for his own wicked objectives, and ~~is~~ is going to succeed to ~~a~~ quite an extent, and later on in Daniel we have a good bit of detail about him, and that is still future, you'll notice that is on the fourth beast and we haven't been told much about the third beast yet in any of these ~~picute~~- pictures, and then he says, "I beheld till the thrones were cast down, and the Ancient ~~ed-f--~~ of days did sit, whose garment was white as snow, and the ~~hair~~- hair of his head like the pure wool: his throne was like the fiery flame, and his wheels as ~~burning~~ fire. ~~As~~ A fiery
