

^{almost} doctrines ~~in some instances~~ ^{better than} than the Mohammedan teachers themselves did ^{any} ~~it~~
~~he~~ ^{was} able to make them publicly ridiculous. Individuals gathered around him and ^{to} ~~te~~ declared their desire to become Christians. ^{Before long the Sultan ordered} ~~A Moslem leader rushed to the local~~ ~~ruler and told him that great harm would come if Lull was allowed to continue speaking~~ publicly. ^{Word} was sent by the ruler, ^{that Lull should be} he was seized and thrown into a dungeon. ^{There} ~~he~~ ^{where he} ~~Lull~~ remained ^{for} several months. ^{All} this time, Moslems ^{were} coming to him frequently, arguing with him, urging him to become a Moslem. They ~~said~~, ^{They} promised him honors, fame, sensual pleasures, every sort of opportunity if he would become a Moslem. Lull said, ^{you} promise me wonderful opportunities and great pleasures in this life, if I become a Moslem, but I promise you that if you will ~~become Christians~~, you will, ~~you~~ if you will believe in Christ, you will receive eternal life, and joy that passes all understanding, ^{through Christ who has the real answer to life's problems.} ~~The~~
^{that was going to Europe} ~~ruler decided to have him killed, but another Moslem leader went to him and said if~~ ~~a man stood as bravely for the doctrines of our faith as Lull proclaims his, we~~ ~~would honor him greatly. It would be a shame to kill a man of such fine qualities. Just~~ ~~expel him from the country, tell him that he will be killed and tortured if he ever comes~~ back. ~~The king agreed to this advice, Lull was placed upon a ship and told that he~~ ~~must never come back.~~

In some way Lull escaped, Lull managed ^{to} ~~to~~ secretly escape from the ship,
~~if~~ just as it was departing. Some of his converts hid him, and ~~there~~ he remained for ^{3 2} ~~in Tunisia~~
⁴ ~~several~~ ¹ ~~some~~ months, ⁵ ~~hiding~~, instructing his converts, and talking with others ^{such as} ~~who~~ would come to him. A sizeable group of converts was won to Christ. After a time ~~however~~, he ~~felt that he must be able to speak more publicly. It was unsatisfactory having to do~~ ~~everything thus in secret.~~ He managed to get away ^{safely} and go back to Europe in order to gather recruits, ~~and attempt another~~, to try to forward the training of others for Mohammedan missions, and to make another attempt to preach ^{publicly} in Tunisia.