

for the coming of our Saviour, not knowing whether it is tomorrow, whether it is next week, next month, next year, a thousand years from now, but being ready whenever He comes, ^tnot trying to build a perfect world here knowing we can't succeed, doing all the good we can as we go along, but remembering that material help to others, establishing systems of society or government will never entirely succeed so long as sin is in the world. The only perfect govt. will be that which Jesus Christ will establish.

I think it is our duty to ^{do all the} good we can while we are here. I hope everyone one of you voted yesterday. I think it is scandalous that we have a Congress in Washington that was elected 2 yrs. ago by wonly 40% of the American people voting. I think it is scandalous. I think it is our duty to know who is running and to do the good we can along the way, but to know that/the best we can do ~~is~~ with Satan is still in control of this world until our Lord comes back and sets up that glorious kingdom to which He wants us to look forward with joy and anticipation.

Let us pray: Our Father, thank you for your Word. We pray you will help us to interpret it carefully, not to read into it that which is not there, not to take -- to jump to conclusions from it, but to carefully find what it says and then stand upon it. We pray you will help us to be looking and longing for the return of our Lord. May He find is faithfully serving when He comes. We ask these things in Jesus Name, Amen.
