

God has given us, we can know that the differences between us are ordained of God just as truly as we are created of God. And they are part of His purpose for us. And our spirit would never be what He wants us to be if it did not have the particular body which He has given it. He puts us in different circumstances, but these circumstances are part of His plan in connection with every one of us. He wants us to do the utmost we can with the equipment He has given us but He is interested in our faithfulness rather than in our apparent accomplishments.

Third He gives us His spirit to <sup>help</sup> ~~XXXX~~ us. I won't have time to elaborate on that. You all are familiar with the importance of this point.

Fourth, He gives us various experience. He wants us to do our best in the situations ~~M~~ we are in to serve Him, and to grow in grace, but if we don't seem to succeed we know it is part of His plan and part of His plan for our development. ~~iN~~ Vietnam thousands of people have come to know the Lord in the last few years. And most of those thousands are today facing <sup>torture</sup> ~~XXXXXXX~~. They are facing suffering, they are facing death. It's all part of God's plan. It is part of what He ~~from~~ the foundation of the world knew was vital for the development of those particular spirits into what He wants them to be. In other words, we should oppose evil in every way we can, but when evil seems to win out in spite of ~~our~~ ~~XXXX~~ best efforts we know that is part of God's will and for our good. In Russia today there are more Christians today than there has ever been in Russia. There are thousands of believers in every part of Russia, and they are facing torture every second. The
