

a wrong word has been given, and they have said, Look at this man, what does he know. Look what he said! Anything that is written by me, anything that is typed and purports to come from my mouth I would like to look over and check before it is . But of course in a spoken message everybody misspeaks themselves. As I said, I've no objection to anybody taking down anything to listen to it, but not to type up and show to anybody.

I believe that this evidence from fulfilled prophecy is an evidence which is not extensive, because God did not give us a great deal of history, but that it is an evidence that has a very considerable number of places at which it can be no doubt that there is an evidence of a knowledge of the future that ~~xxx~~ could not have been written after the time, like the modernists say about hundreds of prophecies in the Bible, that could not have been so planned and carried out as the author of the PASSOVER PLOT says about the many many predictions that were so literally fulfilled in the life of Christ. But that ~~xxx~~ describes conditions or situations that have occurred in ways no human being could never have predicted, but in ways that were perfectly known to Him who created the Universe.

God holds all things in the hollow of His hand. He not only gives challenges; he is capable of answering any challenge that is given to Him. He gives to us the challenge to make our lives -- in the little time He leaves us on this earth == to make our lives count for him. To take the abilities He gives us and use them. Someone has said, If you had one talent, and you don't use that talent to the utmost for God, you deserve nothing but His reproach. If you have 40 talents and you only use 35 of them for the Lord, you may get His reproach. You are not responsible for how much ability God has given you, but you are responsible for what you accomplish for Him. God gives us a little time and a tremendous task. The whole world lies in the evil ~~one~~ one, and brilliant men are busy making up ways of proving that God does not exist. But God in the end will establish His righteousness, and God ~~xxxx~~ chooses to do it through those whom He has led from darkness to light through the death of our Lord Jesus Christ on Calvary's cross. Let us pray:

Our Father, we thank you that the Scripture can answer any true challenge that is given. We thank you that though ~~its~~ its purpose is to ~~w~~ show us how to live and to direct how we should grow in grace and in the knowledge of the Lord, that you have placed in it evidences of its accuracy and dependability. We thank you for these. Our faith, our God, rests in Jesus Christ who lived a life such as no one else has ever lived, and who gave His life that whosoever believeth on Him might never perish but have eternal life. Help us each one to be your instruments to remove the scales from the eyes of those whom Satan has blinded, and to show many the Lord Jesus Christ that they may turn to Him and be saved from their sin. We ask in Jesus' Name. Amen.
