

Inspiration
June 1977

- R2C-1.1 inerrancy a recent term
- 1.2 meaning of inspiration
- Acts 10:9 'vessel'

- 2 translations

- 3 Peter's vision in Acts 10

- 4.5 meaning of inspiration

- 5.1 the word "ark" is used in two different senses
- 5.5 inspiration does not apply to everything an inspired writer may have written
- 5.8 inspiration and apostolicity

- 6.2-6 dictation and inspiration
- 6.8 not to squeeze too much from one verse

- 7.3 seminary president who said he did not believe in errancy
- 7.7 different ways of stating scientific truths

- 8.1 inspiration not limited to one way of expressing a fact
- 8.6-10 difficulty of accurately preserving numbers

- 9.4 possibility of error in transmission
- 9.7 Westcott and Hort text

- 10.1 extremes in denying inerrancy or affirming inerrancy
- 10.3 NT quotations from OT
- 10.10 apparent contradictions

- 11.1 Ps. 55:22 with Gal. 6:2,5
- 11.4 Mat. 7:1 with John 7:24
- 11.8 C.S. Lewis' position on inspiration

- 12.1-4 " " " "
- 12.5 what our emphasis should be