

Sometimes we go to a church where they say, Now we will worship God by presenting our gifts and offerings. Worshipping God isn't presenting gifts. Worshipping God is not performing various functions good as they are, and vital as _____.

Worship is bowing before God in adoring contemplation of His majesty, of His power and His life. Worship is a relationship which God desires His people to have toward Him. If our lives are worthwhile we should have this relationship and _____. It is good to go to church and worship God there. But God wants us to worship Him all the time. He tells us to bow in adoring contemplation of His majesty.

God has led us in such a way that we have come to know Jesus Christ as Saviour. But as we look back and see the influences in our lives which have led us to this point, and that other people have not had similar influences. We see the greater part of the world never having heard of the Gospel, and many in this country never having heard it clearly presented and each of us has been blessed by having it clearly presented to us. We know that it is through no goodness of ours that we have come to know about Christ. It is through no goodness == wisdom of ours that enabled us to have more intelligence than someone else and to receive Christ. But it is God who selected us before the very foundation of the world to have this marvellous blessing of coming to know Jesus Christ and to be saved through Him and to be His instruments in the world.

God desires that we should worship him in every aspect of our lives. We should recognize His part in it. He is interested in it not merely in the great things of our lives. He is interested in the little details of our lives. He is interested that He should be supreme and primary in all that we do.
