

comes back? Are they going to build a great temple in Jerusalem? Is there going to be the battle of Armageddon? Is there going to be tribulation, and the way some people talk you'd think you can be sure there will be no tribulation before the Lord comes back. That of course is ridiculous because there has been tribulations all through history. There have been terrible tribulations and persecutions Christianity was once spread all through China and India and the neighboring countries. There were thousands of Christians through those areas, about 600 to 700 years ago. Thousands of them. And they were rooted out by the Mongols and the Christians and Christianity almost completely disappeared there although there remained a few monuments showing it had been there. There was terrible persecution!

In China 30 years ago there were churches in every part of China where the Word of God was preached, and during the 2nd World War I heard missionary after missionary say the Chinese are indeed grateful for all that is being done by the missionaries and others, and once this war is over the Word of God will spread through China as it never has before. Today the Communists boast there is not a single Christian church in China, that has its doors ~~xxxx~~ open. It is illegal in Russia and in China to even tell a child God exists. A parent who does so risks torture and death for himself. Talk about tribulation, the Christians in China are undergoing tribulation today! The Christians in Russia are undergoing tribulation today. The Christians in many areas are -- Edi Amim in Angola has massacred thousands of Christians.
