

errors in the things they were trying to advance that I could see that if they knocked the ground on which I was believing in the Bible, they ~~w~~ certainly weren't believing in anything as a substitute for it. I went on afterwards to ~~get~~ get some good solid training in the evidences for the scripture and for the truth which ~~had~~ I had continue to hold to through that ~~time~~ time but like a man grasping a straw, hanging on to it, knowing it was right, and sort of wondering how much longer you can hang on to it. The new president that ~~came~~ came there in my ~~last~~ last year of college, I remember in the chapel services, he was always talking about ways of improving the campus, or ~~wesome~~ some kind of way of ~~making~~ making the city a greater city, or something like that. I only heard him give one really religious message the whole year. That time, that man ~~stood~~ stood up and faced our student body and he read in the book of John, the 21st chapter and he ~~gave~~ gave a message Feed my sheep, and I never heard a better ~~message~~ message on that in my life. It was wonderful. If ~~he~~ he had been giving messages like that all year I would have said ~~Pr~~ Praise God to be in ~~an~~ an institution that has this kind of teaching in it. But it was the only message the whole year like that. And when he was two thirds through I was just revelling in what he said, but wondering why ~~such~~ such a sudden change. And then I glanced up and over there on the side of the ~~platform~~ platform where the faculty sat I noticed there was old Dr. Campbell of Prector and Cambell Co. a fine old Christian, who was visiting the college that day, and he ~~did~~ died 4 months later and left quite a no. of thousands of dollars to the college, but we never had another message like that. Helen Gould, the American philanthrop~~ist~~ist of 40 ~~ix~~ years ago, a wonderful Christian woman. ~~gave~~ I think she gave 40,000 dollars to a southern college for its Bible Dept. and the President convinced her that they were doing a great work in the Bible dept. and persuaded her ~~and~~ and she was so anxious to help the teaching of the Word of God and she gave this money, and then about 5 years later somebody who had just graduated from the college told her how they were teaching the higher criticism, denying the personality of God, denying the virgin birth, undercutting the faith of the students in that Bible dept. and
