

To me I always come back to that about the ~~airplane~~ airplane. How silly the Pilgrims would think after 9 weeks crossing the ocean that someday they could do it in six hours!

(Comment)

No Christian says that's impossible. How can we say what's impossible?

(Comment-- out sin of wanting to be so dogmatic)

Yes, we'll be like gods. But there are some things we do know for sure.

(Comment--how dogmatic should we be?)

Frustrating when somebody comes in and knows everything and people say, Oh he's wonderful! I come and say I don't know whether it's this or that, and they say, Poor fellow he's ignorant!

My look-alike died last night. I went into Gino's last night and asked for fried chicken. He said, Did anybody tell you you look like Col. Sanders? (He was the manager). I said, Yes, that's why they don't charge me anything! He disappeared as quick as He thought I meant it!

(Comment)

A lot of this was in my message on the Millennial Kingdom of Christ. If you have a copy of that, that has a lot of the references. I've just made a revision of that because some of it--the latter part was based on a temporary situation. I gave it as a sermon -- it was 1937. I gave it as a sermon. Tokk me 60 min. and then I dictated it in the machine afterwards. There's alot of temporary references to situations that existed then and not today. So I've made a new edition and it is going to be printed soon. The first part of that would give you references.

Prayer by George B. Fincke

now and that is of course all that is left of the of the old world and the new world and the old and the new world and the old world and the old
and the new world and the old world and the old