

for God. I urge you above all to come to know Jesus Christ as your Saviour, that He lives in you and through you and uses you for His glory and it is not you working but He working in you. And to be satisfied with whatever He sends you provided you've done your best, to be satisfied then with the ~~results~~ results that are in His hands.

I also urge you to take advantage of the opportunities here to learn to speak effectively in order that you may learn to have the knowledge of God not only in your heart but following out to those to whom God wants you to be His messenger to enable them to live as He wants them to live.

We have a time ahead in which God is going to give you training in many lines and we pray that each of you may profit from the opportunities that are yours and that God in the coming years will use you to the utmost for His glory. Let us pray.

Our God we thank you for the example Moses set before us. Help us each one no matter how much we already know, no matter how skillful or how awkward we are, no matter what our present situation, ~~help~~ help us to learn to know and to have the power and ability to serve our Saviour effectively. O our God help us to sharpen the instruments we have that they may accomplish your purpose.

O God help us never to become conceited with what we know. How often those who know little become tremendously conceited, and take an attitude that cuts down their effectiveness. Help us to realize that all we can learn is but a thimbleful in the great sea of knowledge. But O our God we can use that thimbleful if we are truly devoted to Christ.

Help us, our Father to realize how Jesus gave his life for us on the cross and what he suffered for us that we might be saved through Him. Help us, O God to be careful to devote everything we have to Him to make our lives count for the very utmost for Him.

We pray for each of the students here that each may grow in his knowledge of how to present truth effectively both in writing and in speaking. That we may be willing to profit by advice given instead of being proud of what he's already attained and not seeing the importance of the advice given. help us each one to learn to present the truth we have in a way that God will use for His glory.

Be with us during this year our Father and help us to make the year a year of progress for our Saviour. We ask in Jesus' Name. Amen.
