

- 1 Luke 11
Two extremes/in prayers
Should be both spontaneous and in the language of Scripture
Importance of the Day of Prayer
- 2 Force of prayer
Adam and Eve == "Where are you?"
Man who said: "When you're living, live in clover; when you're d dead, you're dead all over!"

Are you drifting away from your original zeal?
Day of Prayer should be a time when we find out where we are spiritually
- 3 Repeating prayer thoughtlessly
The great one who is in heaven is our Father. The only reference to "us" in the prayer is with respect to Him as our Father.
Is He far away? In heaven? Not our Father who is far away for we approach him as the heavenly being who is in control of all things.
- 4 Disrespect shown for God's Name on TV
Need for cleansing as we come to Day of Prayer Two students had no use for each other in school but years later they stood shoulder to shoulder for God's truth
Get misunderstandings straightened out with one another

Give us . . . daily bread
Means for our physical, intellectual and emotional life
- 5 Eleven divorces in one seminary
Whole life is affected by the seminary you attend
Bruce Waltke
- 6 Not saved by having a forgiving spirit but the saved are to have a forgiving spirit