

part of the indescribably mystery of life. We have a responsibility to do our best and we know that our lives and the lives of many others will be affected by the decisions we make. Yet if things succeed we know that God ordained ~~it~~ it would be so, and ~~that~~ His goodness is ~~the~~ the real cause of it, and if our plans fail we know that it is part of His plan and He has a ~~an~~ purpose for it, either in relation to our development or in relation to the world itself.