

do not accept the NT<sup>o</sup> as God's revelation and Jesus as God Himself in human ~~fish~~ flesh. They try to explain it on purely human grounds and none of their explanations works out. When we accept the clear teachings of the Word of God everything falls into place. When we reject it we face an insoluble ~~ambxx~~ enigma. The mystery of life itself cannot be solved except by accepting the fact that God himself is the Creator and that He works all things in accordance with His will.
