At Christmas season we look forward with great joy to the ~~is~~ coming of that glorious millennial blessing when the government will be upon the shoulder of the Son of God. However, we have the privilege of to some extent anticipating the blessing of that time. During the present age God offers ~~us~~ to every one His Son Jesus Christ, not only to be their Saviour but to ~~is~~ be the governor who will direct their lives. He desires us to put the government of our lives upon His shoulder. He desires us to take His ~~own~~ yoke upon us and allow ~~is~~ Him to determine all things. How wonderful it is to know all things ~~word~~ work together for good to them that love the Lord, ~~is~~ to those who are the called according to His purpose. He ~~govern~~- governs all things in the world even this day but apart from sin. God is not responsible for sin. He does, however, control all the elements of life and even make the wrath of wicked men to praise Him. He desires us voluntarily to ~~estab-~~ place the government of our lives upon His shoulder. At Christmas ~~is~~ time we celebrate the marvelous privilege of being able to do this.

The rest of the verse gives us the marvelous name that this one is to be called. The Jewish version of the Holy Scripture is on the whole a good and accurate ~~is~~ translation of the Old Testament. It is interesting that in this verse it transliterates the Hebrew and says His name shall be called , and then there ~~us-~~ is

There is a footnote in the version which says, For the mighty God, the Everlasting Father, the Prince of Peace is counseling a wonderful thing. Such long names as this ~~could hardly be paralleled~~ can hardly be paralleled in the Bible or elsewhere. The far more
