

retain, they are retained." They say, "Thank God I'm not a papist." I don't believe that anybody can forgive sins, but there it is. When it says, "He breathed on them and said Receive ye the Holy Ghost and whosoever's sins you forgive they are forgiven and whosoever's sins you retain they are retained." What does it mean? I can't explain it now.

So one of the young men ~~attacked him on this subject~~ when he tackled him on this subject. That was rather hard. One of the men came forth and said, "Look here, "We are young men in business and we know the Lord as our Saviour. We are trying to help people into the kingdom of God, but, of course, we are not able to tackle a man like you. If you really want to find out the answer to these things, go to the Irish Church Mission, 5 Townsend Street, Dublin."

So one day I opened my letters and I got a letter, "I am a Catholic priest. I have some difficulties. I want to know if I can come to present my difficulties before you with the distinct understanding that if I am not satisfied, I will return to my own church."

I wrote back and said, "Dear Sir: We will be very happy to give you hospitality at our mission house. If we can help you in your difficulties, we will ~~only~~ be only too glad to do so and you can feel at perfect liberty to walk out of the place any day and feel under no obligation whatever to us." So he came over and I said to him, "Now, of course, we have morning prayer. If you have religious scruple about joining us in morning prayer, you remain in your room. We quite understand."

"No," he said, "I would like to see how you conduct morning prayer." Mind you I wouldn't go to morning prayer if I didn't live in the mission house, but of course, morning prayer was conducted by the men. I said, "Here are books that you can read. If you want to ask me any questions, I'll do my best to answer you. If you don't want to talk to me, you need not talk to me."

"He said, "On the contrary I would be most anxious to talk to you. That is what I came over for." So for weeks we had long, anxious discussions. In the
