

Now I just want to say this to you in closing. If you make up your mind to be a missionary to men, it is not enough to be satisfied in your own soul. Of course, that is the first condition. ~~xxxx~~ If you haven't a message to deliver in which you believe, you haven't a message to deliver. But in addition to that you must be prepared to listen to other people. You must be prepared to hear people say things that are very disagreeable to you. You must be prepared to ~~xxxx~~ seek by God's grace the answer.

A young man came to me once. He was very much ~~xxxx~~ attracted by a Protestant young lady but he was a Roman Catholic, and she brought him along. It is a long story, but an illustration of what I mean. He after long discussions with me was led to his acceptance of Christ. He is now living in Chichester <sup>3-13/4</sup> in England. I had lunch with him when I was in England quite recently. A wonderful girl who is now gone into poultry ~~farming~~ farming. She is sixteen years of age and they have been very happy and he is a most devoted Christian. Now what was the first thing that broke his prejudice. Well, it is a ~~xxxx~~ funny thing. It just shows that sometimes a chance word that is used by the speaker of God that he likes. He was <sup>2 3-14 1/2</sup> moved by a story of Henry VIII. He asked me about Henry VIII and his wife. I pointed out that Henry VIII died as a vouched Roman Catholic. end of 3.

Then I said to him by way of a joke. Well, you know, after all, if we have one devil in the Protestant Church, even if it is all true that you are saved, you might have one devil in yours ~~xxxx~~ -- so many devils in the Pope. Of course, we were good friends. This wasn't the first time we had met. We had had many chats. He said to me when he accepted Christ and came to a knowledge of the truth, "The only thing that first broke down my prejudice was that remark you made. I knew it was a joke. We knew one another well enough." He used to make jokes at my expense and at the expense of my ~~xxxx~~. He said, "I knew that ~~xxxx~~ you were only joking, but I knew that you believe it. I had the idea in my mind that all Roman Catholics and Popes particularly ~~xxxx~~ and all Roman
