

under their affliction. To you and to me God has given the gracious privilege of taking the message and giving it to their needs. He says if you believe that, take pains, keep God before your mind, and justify your work to yourself that He may be glorified.