

the verse that you wouldn't know it was in the Bible at all. And I said that verse, ^{if this} ~~that~~ truth is taught elsewhere in scripture, this verse doesn't contradict it, but let's not explain the verse in such a way that we get rid of the verse. The verse has some truth or it wouldn't be there. And there may be some vital meaning in that verse that I'm missing by just ^{trying to brush} ~~explaining~~ ^{other} it out of the way in order to get to the ~~the~~ truths of scripture. The more we study the better but when we find something that is clear, I ~~think~~ think that God wants us to do is stand on it and look to Him for further light.
(But, how can you say it's clear though) when there things on both...that fight it) I think they are both there. And I think the mistake is in ~~thing~~-- thinking ^{they} ~~that~~ _____ (Can you be sure that that is ^{where} ~~what~~ _____) Well, that's is a matter of examining the passages, making one's own decision. It's just a matter of taking up the passages one by one, examining them and coming to your own conclusion. And the ~~the~~ thing that the Lord is so _____ by is not ~~the~~ how clearly we explain all these mysteries of the universe, but ~~the~~ what we do with Christ, and ~~whether~~ whether we do accept him as Lord and Saviour. (I agree with that) And the more we follow the light that we have, the more light He will give us. ^{Clay:} (The question that raises in my mind is you say, examine the passages one by one individually and I would agree with you that you examine the passages, and then you examine some other things that are taught and I say no, this is clear what is going to happen two hours or two minutes from now has not ^{get} ~~been decided~~ decided. ^{It could} ~~(if you go one way or~~ the other, there is still freedom as to what is going to happen.) Well, I would say there is freedom as far as I'm concerned, but I do stress the tremendous importance on what is going to happen tomorrow. I think that we've made a great mistake sometime to loose our hold on human ^{freedom} ~~creed~~. That one will way, Oh, what's the difference, if that one is going to be saved the Lord will save ~~the~~ him anyway. Let's go out to the baseball game. Well, that's definitely
