

pages that went into all the difficulties that would be raised. (Why don't you write the 40 pages now while you're pondering on the thousand , because I know a lot of people that the 40 pages would help). You think so? Well, lend me the tape on that Isaiah talk. See, I have spoken on Psalm 22 before a good many times, but my interest has been mostly in the lessons for us. Today, I put a little more stress on fulfilled prophecy . I'm ...somewhat. But, I think while speaking last night and today, I got some new insight into both of those passages. But just how long a book you would have to write to make it clear and not have some say that it's not a mistake but a gap, something you haven't gone into , people can ~~z~~ look at this silly fool making...where, with a little more space you can make clear what you mean. It ~~went~~- wont be vulnerable . (If we have...) I believe his work is in that phase of archaeologically that deals with the study of the plan and the city and the walls and all that. Of course, it's a very ~~impre~~ (Discussion for the rest of the tape --not important for here).
