

Isaiah

chapter twenty-one(cont'd)

v.8 I have sat at my post all night

I am stationed at my post all(every) night

chapter twenty-two

47- v.3 they are captured by the archers

q

have been captured without the bow(NASB) are fettered without the bow(Delitzsch) without the bow were they bound(Young)

Lit. from the bow--the prep has the force of without, i.e.(without one needing to bend a bow against them)they were made prisoners.

chapter twenty-three

v.1 no house, no harbor

without an entrance
your port of entry is destroyed (Beck) without a house, without an entrance(Young) Lit."for it is devastated(away) from a house" i.e. it is without a house. The second is dependent upon the previous phrase, hence, so that there is no entrance. cf.24:10
without house or harbor(NASB)

v.7 whose feet carried her her feet shall carry her away whose feet used to carry her (NASB)

See Young, p. 128

her feet carried her far away to settle(Delitzsch)

51- v.11 merchant city(KJV)
Canaan(NKJV)

51- v.13 people which was not

people which did not exist

v.17 commit immorality(NKJV)
commit fornication(KJV)