

- p. 64 Story of Ishmael and Isaac given by E in ch. 21 is a variant account of the narrative from J found in ch. 16
- Account of Abraham's preparations to sacrifice Isaac, has no parallel in the J tradition. Regarded as the classical portion of the E materials. J may have had his own version, but if so that version has disappeared.
- p. 65 The P account of the covenant with Abraham (ch. 17) shows/much later age than does that found in E materials of ch. 15 marks of a
- p. 67 Harrelson puts Gen. 38 in J, not in S, as does Pfeiffer and says that Pfeiffer's view is "hardly correct."
- p. 70 Joseph in Egypt, Gen. 39 - 48
"Occasional discrepancies and some unevenness of style" Very few "outright contradictions"
- a. Was all the money found at the lodging place or only the money of one brother, 42.27 versus 43.21?
 - b. Did Joseph's family identify themselves as cattlemen or as shepherds, 46.34 versus 47.3?
 - c.
