

p. 175

E

J

- ✓ 1. Gen. 20.1-17
Abraham did not lie      when he said      Gen. 12.10-20
Sarah was his sister
- ✓ 2. Gen. 21.12
Abraham dismissed Hagar in      Gen. 16.6
obedience to a divine      not      because of Sarah's nagging command
- ✓ 3. Gen. 31.5-16
Jacob acquired his wealth      not      Gen. 30.37-43
through divine blessing      through clever tricks
- ✓ 4. Gen. 42. 13,32
Joseph's brothers said      Gen. 44.20
"he is not"      not      the blunt untruth that Joseph was dead

In E "Abraham and his descendants are idealized more than in J, and questionable actions in their career are justified as divine commands or otherwise made to appear innocent." p. 175

p. 177

- ✓ 5. Gen. 21.14-16
Hagar is a pathetic figure      Gen. 16.4-7a, 11-14
Hagar is a valiant and proud Bedouin woman who rebels against humiliating treatment.
- ✓ 6. Gen. 37.29f
Reuben gives expression to pro-      Gen. 37.25-27
found grief when he fails to      Callousness of Joseph's brethren find Joseph      in selling Joseph to the Ishamelites.

p. 176

- ✓ 7. Gen. 31.11-13      Return from Haran      Gen. 31.3
More detailed,      More lucid more prolix      More direct

p. 204

P

S

- ✓ 8. Gen. 5
Line of Adam thro Seth      Gen. 4.1a,17f
Line of Adam thro Cain